Quincy, Calif., elev. 3,407 ft., is headquarters of Plumas National Forest Service, and the center of lumbering and gold mining industries. The "Johnsville Ski Hills" and Winter Sports are less than one hour's drive from Quincy, also the road to Buck's Lake starts here, and with dozens of other mountain lakes in the virgin forest country with miles of streams all "Chucked full of trout," Quincy truly is the ideal location for Summer or Winter vacations.
